[REDACTED] Professor of Law and [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Washington and Lee University, advised that he recalls LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., as an outstanding student who was intelligent, responsible, and exceedingly well adapted to the study of law. He was always active in student affairs and respected by both members of the faculty and other students. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that while he was serving as [REDACTED] he had numerous opportunities to observe Mr. POWELL in his service on the Board of Directors of the University and found that he was always responsible, level-headed, calm, and discerning on matters before the board. He also said that Mr. POWELL had been active for a period of time in the Law School Association and had always contributed significantly in matters in which he participated. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that Mr. POWELL has outstanding background, experience, and ability in matters of law and has always displayed a highly responsible and judicial temperament in matters in which he has observed him. He stated that Mr. POWELL as well as members of his family is a person of outstanding reputation, highest moral character, loyalty, and integrity. Mr. [REDACTED] advised that he considers Mr. POWELL to be eminently qualified for a position on the U. S. Supreme Court, and recommends him.

described POWELL further as "moderate" with respect to his judicial temperament, adding that he is eminently fair with respect to civil rights and related issues. [REDACTED] stated that he knows of no organizations of which POWELL is a member or business or real estate ventures in which POWELL has participated which could be considered tainted by civil rights problems. [REDACTED] further advised that he is unaware of any avenue of criticism by which POWELL could be attacked.
[REDACTED] stated, however, that some members of POWELL's firm participated in the Prince Edward County School desegregation suit in Virginia in 1954, arguing for the side of the School Board. POWELL himself, however, did not participate in this suit. [REDACTED] added further that POWELL was Chairman of the School Board in Richmond during the early desegregation crisis and, to his knowledge, POWELL never received any criticism for conducting himself in an unfair manner. Rather [REDACTED] feels POWELL was eminently fair, handled all difficult situations very adeptly, and both Negro and white citizens were very well satisfied with POWELL's chairmanship.

He has had renewed association during the last eight years, during which time he has been active in the American Bar Association.

He advised that POWELL possesses judicial temperament to an unusual degree. He is scholarly, poised, and would be an asset on the Bench.

[redacted] stated he had no knowledge regarding POWELL's attitude on civil rights except that he knew POWELL to have been involved in the school issue in Richmond, Virginia, and in the State during troubled years and was respected for his open mind and desire to prevent the schools from being closed. [redacted] stated that POWELL is a man of excellent legal ability, well regarded in his profession, and he would recommend him without reservation for an appointment to the Supreme Court.

b6
b7C Professor [redacted] UVA Law School, advised that he has known POWELL since 1956, at which time [redacted] had entered Law School and was residing in Richmond, Virginia. He has had very close contacts with POWELL. [redacted] of which [redacted] served [redacted] from March 1968 to January 1969. [redacted] stated he has sustained contact during the [redacted] period and knows of no one whom he respects more highly in the legal field than POWELL. He had absolutely no reservation regarding POWELL's character, reputation and loyalty and considers him to have an exceptional judicial temperament, being very even-tempered, moderate and poised. He has qualities of mind which thoroughly suit him for appointment to the Supreme Court.

b6
b7C [redacted] stated that he is presently reviewing many of the written works of POWELL prior to testifying before the Judicial Committee in Washington, D.C., next week on POWELL's appointment. From the review of POWELL's written reports, he would consider him to be a moderate on civil rights and compared POWELL's views as being close to those of the late Supreme Court Justice BLACK, whose opinions were filed during the mid-1960's.

[redacted] stated that he would recommend POWELL without any reservation whatsoever.

[REDACTED] City of Bristol, Bristol, Virginia, advised that he was a classmate of LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., at Washington and Lee University Law School, Lexington, Virginia, and has known POWELL approximately 40 years. This relationship has been on a casual basis socially and regularly on a business basis. [REDACTED] knows POWELL to have excellent legal ability and that POWELL maintains the highest regard and reputation among other members of the legal society in the State of Virginia.

[REDACTED] stated that POWELL, to the best of his knowledge, was not a member of any racially prejudice organization and believed him to be neutral on civil rights matters with excellent judicial ability and reasonable and balanced temperament. He recommended Mr. POWELL.

[REDACTED] member of Woodward, Miles, and Flannagan Law Firm, Bristol, Virginia, [REDACTED] of the Virginia Bar Association, advised that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., for approximately 25 years on both a professional and social level. [REDACTED] advised he knows POWELL's family personally and considers them to be people of unapproachable character and friendliness. [REDACTED] stated that he has been associated with POWELL through the bar association handling cases and on various other civic boards and councils. [REDACTED] believes POWELL to be of exceptional quality with an excellent legal mind and would recommend him without reservation for any legal position. Prejudicial

[REDACTED] member of the law firm of Woodward, Miles, and Flannagan, Bristol, Virginia, and former President of the Virginia State Bar, advised that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., for approximately 30 years on almost a strictly legal level and has attended very few social functions with POWELL. [REDACTED] believes POWELL has one of the finest legal minds in the State of Virginia and is exceptionally qualified for any judicial position. WOODWARD knows POWELL to be an even-tempered individual with unquestionable character and holding the highest regard of his associates, and he was glad to recommend him.

On October 24, 1971, [REDACTED] Richmond, was interviewed concerning the nomination of LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., to the United States Supreme Court. Mr. [REDACTED] the Richmond-based law firm of Blanton, Shaia and Kelly, 700 East Main Street, Richmond. It is further noted that Mr. [REDACTED] of the Virginia State Bar.

Mr. [REDACTED] advised that, in his opinion, LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., is eminently qualified for the position in question. He advised that POWELL possesses an excellent legal mind and is a devoted student of the law. [REDACTED] further stated that POWELL possesses a keen insight into all complicated phases of law and is able to state the problem in clear and concise language.

Mr. [REDACTED] advised that he has, on many occasions during the past 15 to 20 years, been associated with POWELL in various legal and professional organizations in the Richmond area. He stated that, although POWELL has no judicial experience, he is absolutely certain that his legal scholarship more than qualifies him for a position on the Supreme Court, and he so recommended.

[REDACTED] stated that he has always known POWELL to be a moderate concerning civil rights problems. He further stated that he is aware of no information concerning POWELL's stand on the civil rights question which would detract from his ability to function as a fair and impartial Justice of the Supreme Court.

b7C
[REDACTED] advised that POWELL's character and associates are impeccable and at no time during his association with him has he ever doubted his loyalty to the presently instituted form of the United States Government.

[REDACTED] stated that the only negative factor involved in the POWELL nomination is the nominee's rather advanced age. However, [REDACTED] reiterated that, in his opinion, the President could not have found a more qualified individual to fill this position.

October 25, 1971:

Honorable [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and prominent Negro attorney, was interviewed at his law office, [REDACTED] Richmond, Virginia, and furnished the following information:

He has been personally acquainted with Mr. LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. for the last five years. Through this association, he has come to know Mr. POWELL as a man of unimpeachable character and associates and a person who is most highly esteemed by his peers in the legal profession. He further described Mr. POWELL as a man completely loyal to the United States and an advocate of law and order.

He considers Mr. POWELL to be one of the most respected members of the Virginia Bar and a man who is eminently qualified in the field of law.

He is aware that Mr. POWELL has been nominated for the position of Justice on the United States Supreme Court.
He believes that despite having no prior judicial experience,
Mr. POWELL has the ability to be an excellent Justice of the Supreme Court.

With respect to the civil rights area, he considers Mr. POWELL to be a moderate. He believes that Mr. POWELL has had no first-hand experience in dealing with the race problems in this country which may serve as a shortcoming in his evaluation as a Supreme Court Justice of civil rights cases. He added, however, that he considers Mr. POWELL to be a fair person who is interested in seeing progress being made in the civil rights field, however, such progress should be made slowly.

The only other shortcoming that he can think of with regard to Mr. POWELL is that of Mr. POWELL's age. He

[REDACTED] Attorney at Law [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Richmond, Virginia, advised SA [REDACTED] on October 26, 1971; that he has been acquainted with LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. for 23 years and is a close friend of POWELL's.

[REDACTED] advised that POWELL is a very quiet, reserved individual, who has a great legal mind and the judicial temperament to be a judge of an appellate court, particularly the United States Supreme Court. [REDACTED] stated that POWELL has good legal ability and that he has been involved in cases with POWELL on a number of occasions usually as an opposing attorney and POWELL has always exhibited his ability as being an individual who is well versed in the law.

[REDACTED] advised that POWELL is a very community-minded individual and in civil rights matters, he considers him to be an enlightened moderate, not a segregationist and one who would uphold every man's dignities and rights, regardless of his race, color or creed. [REDACTED] advised that to the best of his recollection, POWELL was one of the leaders in having Negroes become members of the American Bar Association;
the Virginia Bar Association and the Richmond Bar Association.

[REDACTED] stated that POWELL also, when he was Chairman of the Richmond School Board for the City of Richmond, Virginia, was one of the leaders in making it possible for the Richmond School System to become integrated on an orderly basis.

b6

The following investigation was conducted by
SA [REDACTED]

On October 26, 1971, the following persons were interviewed:

[REDACTED] Attorney [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Christian, Barton, Parker, Epps, and Brent
Law Firm, Suite 1200, Mutual Building, 9th and East Main Streets, Richmond, Virginia, advised that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. approximately forty years since POWELL first came to work as a young attorney after having completed his Masters Course in Law at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Approximately four years later, in the early 1930s, Mr. POWELL left the firm to join the law firm he is presently associated with as a partner. During that period of time, [REDACTED] has observed that Mr. POWELL is a man of unquestionable great character, a brilliant legal mind, and eminently qualified to be a Justice (for) of the United States Supreme Court. [REDACTED] believes that Mr. POWELL has the temperament to be an excellent Associate Justice, and in [REDACTED] judgment, would be unqualifiedly fair minded in his dealings in civil rights matters effecting the lives of members of minority races and groups. Mr. [REDACTED] said there was nothing about which he was aware in the background of Mr. POWELL which would be detrimental to him in obtaining the high office of Justice of the United States Supreme Court and recommends him.

The Honorable [REDACTED] Attorney and Hustings Court Judge, City of Richmond, City Hall, 10th and East Broad Streets, Richmond, Virginia, stated that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. approximately ten years from having associated with him prior to and during their service on [REDACTED] [REDACTED] when [REDACTED] for the City of Richmond, Virginia. In Judge [REDACTED] opinion, LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. is qualified without Jeffreys and Lawler Law Firm, Suite 615, Mutual Building, 9th and East Main Streets, Richmond, Virginia, related that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. approximately twenty-five years and considers him to be a most excellent choice to be a Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Mr. [REDACTED] Mr. POWELL to be a great lawyer and a great American who has a fine judicial type temperament and who will represent the wide interests of all Americans if finally affirmed by the United States Senate as a Supreme Court Justice, and he so recommended.

Mr. [REDACTED] Attorney and [REDACTED] Jeffreys and Lawler Law Firm, Suite 615, Mutual Building, 9th and East Main Streets, Richmond, Virginia, related that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. over twenty years. He said that Mr. POWELL is a loyal American citizen of unquestionable excellent character and morality. He is a great legal mind and has the temperament to be a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States by virtue of his eminently fair and impartial attitudes with respect to legal questions.

Mr. [REDACTED] believes that the selection of Mr. POWELL by President NIXON for nomination to the Supreme Court is one of his wisest appointments. He also recommends.

FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL JUDGES

████████████████████ United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia, advised SA ██████████ on October 26, 1971; that he is well acquainted with LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. and has been acquainted with him for the past 25 years.

████████████████████ stated that prior to taking the bench, he opposed POWELL in a number of cases and that POWELL has also had cases before him in the United States District Court. ██████████ stated that POWELL has a great legal mind; that he is one who is very capable in appellate matters and one with the proper judicial temperament to become the judge of an appellate court and he would highly recommend him as a Justice for the United States Supreme Court.

████████████████████ stated that he had not written any letters of recommendation for POWELL recommending his nomination as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court, but that if he were called by a Senate Committee, he would certainly testify in favor of POWELL. ██████████ advised that POWELL is a very quiet individual who is of the highest character, integrity and honesty and that he is most thorough in everything he does.

████████████████████ advised that he has never discussed civil rights matters with POWELL, but that he knows from discussions with him that he has the highest respect for the human rights of all mankind and that he also knows that regardless of POWELL's personal feelings toward anything or anyone, he would follow the law and the Constitution of the United States, in deciding a case.

████████████████████ advised that both POWELL and he are members of ██████████ Richmond, Virginia; that the Club does not have any Negro members, however, the policy

[REDACTED] United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, Richmond, Virginia, advised SA [REDACTED] on October 26, 1971, that he has been acquainted with LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. for twenty years and that he considers him a man of excellent legal ability and a man of the highest character, integrity and honesty and that he would highly recommend him as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

[REDACTED] advised that as well as he could recall, POWELL has been before his court on one or two occasions and that he has read several briefs on which POWELL's name appeared. [REDACTED] stated he considered POWELL to be a capable attorney and the briefs he has had an occasion to read appear to have been written by a legal scholar. [REDACTED] stated that he considers POWELL to be a person of judicial temperament and one who would make a great Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

[REDACTED] advised that he has never had an opportunity to discuss civil rights matters with POWELL, however, he considers him to be a moderate in the civil rights field, based on what he has heard concerning him; that he is not a bigot in any way and he is certainly a man who is very much concerned with the rights of other human beings.

[REDACTED] stated that both he and POWELL are members of the Commonwealth Club in Richmond, Virginia; that the Commonwealth Club does not have any Negro members, however, neither POWELL nor he set the policies of the Club and he does not know if any member of the Negro race has ever applied for membership in the Commonwealth Club. [REDACTED] advised that due to the fact that POWELL is a member of one of the largest law firms in Virginia, it would be fitting for him to be a member of the Commonwealth Club and it would be almost necessary that he be a member in order to carry on his law practice.

[REDACTED] advised that he has known LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., since the middle 1940's and, although not an intimate social associate, he has known him both socially and professionally during this interim of time. [REDACTED] stated that he would in no way question Mr. POWELL's loyalty to the United States and that Mr. POWELL has shown his devotion to the country by his attitude and public service. He related that he considers Mr. POWELL to be a clean-living and sober individual in mind, conduct, and habits. He added that Mr. POWELL's reputation among associates both socially and professionally is of the highest.

With regard to Mr. POWELL's ability, [REDACTED] stated that he is a profound student of the law, a researcher in law, dedicated to the U. S. Constitution and to the Constitutional form of government. He regards him as an A-1 lawyer, counsel, and adviser, who is well-versed in corporate law and has represented numerous corporations in this field of endeavor. He related that he considers the law firm in which Mr. POWELL is a partner, namely Hunton, Williams, Gay, Powell, and Gibson, to be the strongest law firm in the State of Virginia.

[REDACTED] commented that he considers Mr. POWELL a moderate on the civil rights issues and would expect him to handle all civil rights issues with an open mind and consider the matters at hand with a deep sense of respect for all concerned. b7c On October 26, 1971, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Hustings Court Part 1, City of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia, who resides at [REDACTED] Richmond, was interviewed and furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] he has been acquainted with LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., since approximately 1948 when both he and POWELL were engaged in law practice in the City of Richmond. [REDACTED] he has been closely associated with POWELL both professionally and socially since 1956 inasmuch as they both live in the same immediate neighborhood.

b6
b7c [REDACTED] he considers POWELL to be of the highest character, honesty and integrity and one of the most intelligent men he has ever known. [REDACTED] that POWELL is very much a gentleman in all phases of professional as well as social life. [REDACTED] that POWELL, due to his positions with the Richmond School Board and the Virginia State Board of Education, has been involved in several matters involving integration and civil rights. [REDACTED] that to his knowledge POWELL has been moderate in his thinking in these matters and generally considered the issue at hand before the racial aspect. [REDACTED] he would consider POWELL to be absolutely fair to any minority group.

[REDACTED] he considers POWELL to be one of the best qualified men in the United States to serve on the Supreme Court and would recommend him for this or any other position.

[REDACTED] Circuit Court, Chesterfield County, Virginia, advised SA [REDACTED] on October 26, 1971, that he has been acquainted with LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. for over 35 years and has been in his presence on numerous occasions pertaining to legal matters as well as discussions carried on by POWELL. [REDACTED] stated that POWELL is a very quiet individual of great legal ability and one who would have the ability as well as the judicial temperament to be the judge of an appellate court, particularly a Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

[REDACTED] advised that most of POWELL's work consists of appellate work and that he would be one who would be most thorough in any opinion he would have an opportunity to prepare and he would be one who would abide by the laws of this country as well as the Constitution of this country.

[REDACTED] advised that from statements he has heard POWELL make concerning civil rights matters, he would consider him to be a moderate in civil rights matters; that he knows he was one who was against massive resistance to integration in the City of Richmond, and he desired that everyone in the City of Richmond abide by the law of the land. [REDACTED] stated that POWELL, in his conversations and speeches, has always stressed the dignity and the rights of man and he is a supporter of the rights of everyone, regardless of their race, color or creed.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated that POWELL has the highest character, integrity and honesty and there is no blemish on his record which would prevent him from becoming a Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

[REDACTED] advised that both POWELL and he are members of [REDACTED] Richmond, Virginia, and have been members of that group for many years. [REDACTED]

██████████ stated that the Club does not have any members of the Negro race, however, neither POWELL nor he had anything to do with the policy of the Club and that he did not know that it was the policy of the Club to be segregated but he was of the opinion that the Club was segregated due to the fact that no members of the Negro race have applied for membership.

b6
b7C ██████████ advised that the law firm of which POWELL is a member does not have any attorneys of the Negro race, however, he is certain from his discussions with POWELL that the law firm does not obtain attorneys due to their race, color or creed, but obtain attorneys due to their ability and that the law firm would, in all probability, obtain an attorney of the Negro race if such an attorney applied and had the proper legal qualifications.

██████████ highly recommended Mr. POWELL for the Supreme Court.

Mr. LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., advised on October 26, 1971, that he had been a member of the National Student Federation during the time he was at Washington and Lee University and, while he was president of the student body at that University, he stated he had been elected to the Executive Committee for a two year period in 1930 and indicated that this was an organization to which the various student governments on college and university campuses across the nation belonged. He advised he felt very proud to have been a member of this organization.

In a leaflet issued in 1930 by the National Student Federation listing the members of the "Controlling Bodies for 1930" the regional representative for the south was listed as LEWIS F. POWELL. Mr. POWELL advised he had been elected to represent the south at that time.

A directory of youth organizations issued by the National Youth Administration in 1940 sets forth the following information with respect to the National Student Federation of America:

"History: The National Student Federation of America was founded in 1925 at a conference of students, representatives of 245 colleges and universities, meeting at Princeton.

"Program: 1. Advocates the establishment of student governments in colleges and universities to give students a share in the responsibilities of college life and a training for democratic leadership. Endorses democratic election systems, honor systems, orientation programs for freshmen, student

- faculty committees, student participation in curriculum revision, no censorship of college press, no salaries for student officers.
2. Against American participation in war, military or economic aid to any country engaged in armed conflict. Optional rather than compulsory ROTC, adequate national defense but no infringement on domestic programs by exorbitant military expenditures.
 3. Endorses the National Youth Administration, Federal aid to education, adequate health program for students, vocational education and guidance, freedom of speech, assemblage and press, academic freedom. Condemns methods of the Dies Committee.
 4. Urges greater education in "politics" for college students. Fifteenth Annual Congress at University of Minnesota, December 27-31, 1939.

The following investigation was conducted by
SA [REDACTED]:

On October 26, 1971, Mr. [REDACTED] Clerk, Clarke County Circuit Court, Berryville, Virginia, made available Docket Number 1269CL, entitled, "CHARLES EVANS HUGHES, plaintiff, vs. HARRY F. BYRD, JR., ET AL, defendants" which was filed in the Clerk's Office on October 25, 1967.

This file reflects that one of the defendants in this case was LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., Richmond, Virginia.

The motion filed by the plaintiff contains the following pertaining to LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR.:

"I went to his office and asked the receptionist to let me see him. She said that he was in a meeting but I could see his assistant, Mr. PETER WARD. I went to Mr. WARD's office and showed him my papers. He said that we could _____ the government pay. Mr. POWELL held the papers for nearly two years and he never did anything about the case. Finally, my auditor, Mr. FAIRBANKS, went to see Mr. POWELL and he said that he hadn't looked into the case. I went to Mr. WARD and he denied that he ever saw the case. Both of them were lying. I expect Mr. POWELL and Mr. WARD to suffer for the damages and should be disbarred _____ the law practice."

The following demurrer was filed on behalf of LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. by his attorney, JOSEPH M. SPIVEY:

RH 77-11979

The defendant, LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., by counsel, said that the plaintiff's motion for judgment is not sufficient in law and states the grounds of demurrer relied upon to be as follows:

(1.) The motion for judgment fails to set forth any facts justifying recovery against this defendant.

(2.) The motion for judgment fails to state any duty upon this defendant to the plaintiff or that this defendant has breached any such duty.

(3.) The motion for judgment fails to state with particularity the manner in which the plaintiff has been damaged.

This case came to be held on March 11, 1968, upon the plaintiff's motion for judgment and upon the demurrers of LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. and others, and the demurrers were sustained by the court and the defendants were dismissed from the case.

The plaintiff in his motion of judgment asked judgment against the defendants in the amount of $125,318,635.00 with interest thereon from the date of judgment.

b7C
[REDACTED] ABA, and [REDACTED] ABA, said he has known POWELL about 12 years, both personally and professionally, and that he was one of the greatest Presidents the ABA ever had. He mentioned the following three major programs instituted by ABA under POWELL's leadership:

1. He persuaded organized bar associations (ABA and states) to embrace the concept of federal help in providing legal assistance to the poor through the Office of Economic Opportunity.

2. During his administration, the ABA concluded the Minimum Standards of Criminal Justice Program which set standards for all aspects of criminal justice administration, e.g. investigations, arrests, trials, sentencing, and post conviction appeals in both state and federal courts. This project involved more than 100 lawyers and judges and furnished guidelines for courts and the whole law enforcement system. The results were published in 16 reports called "Standards of Criminal Justice."

3. He was principally responsible, about 10 years ago, for the creation of the ABA standing committee on "Education About Communism and Its Contrast with Liberty Under Law." He was the first chairman of the committee which is still in existence.

b7C
[REDACTED] said POWELL has tremendous intellect, highest integrity, character, and reputation and good personal habits. He added he has the temperament for a judge, is calm and "unflappable" and writes with clarity and lucidity. He knows of nothing in his background which would conflict with his duties as a judge. In his opinion, POWELL would decide cases on law and evidence regardless of race, religion, or economic status of litigates. As evidence of the latter, he said when POWELL was President of the Virginia State Board of Education, Virginia adopted a state-wide school integration program. In conclusion, he said POWELL would be one of the great U.S. Supreme Court Justices.

[REDACTED] ABA, has known POWELL since 1963 and said he cannot imagine anyone who would make a better U.S. Supreme Court Justice. He said he has known many lawyers and judges and "whenever I think of judicial temperament, I think of him." He based this on his deportment, personality, patience, and legal ability. He added POWELL "wastes no time with trivia." He believes he would accept any human being at his face value and that he cannot imagine he could be prejudiced against anyone regardless of race or color. He said his intellectual ability and the respect which the 297 ABA House of Delegates had for him were responsible for their approval of the ABA's legal services for the poor program. To [REDACTED] knowledge, there is nothing in his past, his character, or his affiliations which could compromise him or conflict with his duties as a Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court for which position he highly recommended him.

b7C
Mr. [REDACTED] Attorney Wright Harlor, Morris and Arnold, Columbus, Ohio [REDACTED] ABA), was interviewed by SA [REDACTED] at Chicago regarding POWELL. He advised he has known POWELL for the past 30 years socially and professionally. He considers him "one of the most outstanding lawyers in the country." He stated POWELL possesses excellent command of law and judicial temperament and believes he "will take a fair attitude toward civil rights issues." He feels POWELL will follow prescribed constitutional guidelines with a fair and positive attitude. [REDACTED] considers POWELL to be unbiased in his legal outlook.

He stated POWELL enjoys the highest character, reputation, and associates, and considers him an involved, concerned citizen, completely loyal to the United States. He advised POWELL is a "very light drinker."

He highly recommends POWELL stating "he is as good a man as the President could nominate."

American Bar Foundation (ABF)
1155 East 60th Street
Chicago, Illinois

On October 26, 1971, Mrs. [REDACTED] advised she is acquainted with applicant through his work with this organization. She said he was Vice-President before becoming President of the ABF in 1969 and serving for two terms before he resigned this position in 1971. Mrs. [REDACTED] was most laudatory in her remarks about Mr. POWELL and stated she would recommend him for the high position of Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

On October 26, 1971, [REDACTED] ABF, stated that he has known LOUIS FRANKLIN POWELL on a professional basis since the Spring of 1969. At that time they were both active members of the ABF. POWELL became President of the ABF in October, 1969, and maintained this position until October, 1971.

[REDACTED], further stated that POWELL is an individual who has shown himself to be highly intelligent, scholarly, well versed in legal principles, possessing the ability to separate the facts from extraneous and irrelevant material, he has soundness of mind and his legal decisions have always been based on well reasoned grounds.

[REDACTED] added that he considers POWELL to be a "strict constitutionalist." POWELL is unquestionably a person of the highest character and of unquestioned loyalty to his country. He is an exemplary individual with social grace. He has the ability to listen and hear the words of others.

[REDACTED] advised that he knows of absolutely no derogatory or unfavorable information concerning POWELL's past or present activities. He opined that POWELL's only prejudice might be that in favor of "Law and Order." POWELL possesses the character qualities which would lend him to exhibit the highest degree of judicial temperament.

b7C [redacted] recommended POWELL to the highest possible degree for a position of trust and confidence as Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

On October 26, 1971, [redacted] American Bar Foundation, stated that he has been associated with LOUIS FRANKLIN POWELL on a professional basis, through this foundation, for the past three years. He considers POWELL to be one of the finest attorneys in this nation. He has had occasion to work with POWELL on numerous legal research matters and on the Executive Board of this foundation. POWELL has demonstrated unexcelled leadership ability, he has great finesse in working with people, he is a calming influence and peacemaker in legal disputes and he is free from any undesirable influences.

[redacted] added that he cannot possibly use enough superlatives in expressing his objective and critical evaluation of POWELL. POWELL is a man of the highest character, his loyalty to his country is second to none, and his associations are with the most respected individuals in this nation.

[redacted] was unable to recall any unfavorable situation in which POWELL might have previously been associated.

[redacted] stated that POWELL has always been very cognizant of the shortcomings of this society and he has devoted the greater share of his life to correcting these shortcomings under the framework of our Constitution.

b6
b7C [redacted] advised that POWELL is slim, trim, vigorous, and capable of working long hours. POWELL's age at this time, in his opinion, is not a limiting factor. It appears that POWELL enjoys excellent health.

In summation, [redacted] stated that he could best summarize POWELL's qualifications, achievements, and objectives as being "superb." [redacted] recommended POWELL without reservation or qualification for a position of trust and confidence as Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

b7C
He has known Mr. LEWIS F. POWELL, JR. for about ten years. Judge [REDACTED] served on the Legal Research Committee, American Bar Foundation, with him. Judge [REDACTED] has seen him occasionally in the last few years. He is "first class" in his legal ability and very knowledgeable in law.

He makes a very fine appearance. He has a pleasing personality. "He is not pompous" but quiet. He is well liked by those with whom he is associated. As far as Judge [REDACTED] knows, his character, habits and sobriety are excellent. He appears to be in very good health. His personal and professional reputation are very high. His loyalty to his country is unquestionable.

Judge [REDACTED] believes he has an excellent judicial temperament. Judge [REDACTED] also believes he would be objective, fair-minded and impartial in any decisions he would be called upon to make as a judge.

b7C
There has been no indication to Judge [REDACTED] that he has any extremist viewpoints nor that he has been connected with any racially prejudiced organization nor extremist group.

Judge [REDACTED] very highly recommended him for a position on the United States Supreme Court.

District of Columbia Court of Appeals

The following Judges of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, advised Special Agent [REDACTED] as follows on October 26, 1971, concerning Mr. LEWIS F. POWELL, JR.:

[REDACTED] advised as follows:

He has never met LEWIS F. POWELL, JR., personally. However, Judge [REDACTED] has heard through mutual associates and friends that Mr. POWELL has the highest type of reputation in legal circles and the comments that Judge [REDACTED] has read about him in the newspaper are very favorable. Judge [REDACTED] has also heard through mutual associates that Mr. POWELL has raised the standards of the American Bar Association in the time he was President of this association to a higher level than ever before. Judge [REDACTED] has had no opportunity personally to make any observations concerning him. Judge [REDACTED] highly recommended Mr. POWELL for a position in the United States Supreme Court and thought he was eminently qualified for such a position based on the high reputation he has in the legal community for being an outstanding attorney.

b6
b7C
Judge [REDACTED] advised as follows:

b6
b7C
To the best of his recollection he met Mr. POWELL at an American Bar Association meeting around the early 1960's. At this time a committee of the American Bar Association on Communism met and although Mr. POWELL was not a member of this committee, Judge [REDACTED] believed he was present because he was either the President elect or the President of the American Bar Association at that time. Later Judge [REDACTED] talked to Mr. POWELL 2 or 3 times concerning the subject of Communism. Judge [REDACTED] has had no legal dealings with Mr. POWELL nor has he ever seen him trying a case in court. Through mutual associates Judge [REDACTED] has learned that Mr. POWELL has an outstanding reputation as an attorney and is respected as a great legal scholar. "He is top flight and a successful practitioner", according to information received by Judge [REDACTED] from his associates. He is devoted to the system of government in the United States and to an honest application of law. Nothing of a derogatory nature concerning him has come to Judge [REDACTED] attention. Judge [REDACTED] highly recommended Mr. POWELL as one of the finest candidates for the United States Supreme Court that President NIXON could possibly find.

Judge [REDACTED] advised as follows:

b7C He believed he had met Mr. POWELL only once at a National Conference on the Judiciary, this was in the Spring of 1971. Judge [REDACTED] has had no opportunity to make any personal observations concerning him but understands from mutual friends and associates that Mr. POWELL has an extremely good professional reputation in legal circles by virtue of the fact that he has been President of the National Bar Association and President of the College of Trial Lawyers, which positions require eminently qualified persons and due to the fact that he is an outstanding legal practitioner. Judge [REDACTED] thinks he is well qualified for a position as a Justice on the United States Supreme Court and highly recommends him for such a position.

b6/b7C Judge [REDACTED] advised as follows:

He has had no personal association with Mr. POWELL and knows him only by reputation which is very good. He has heard nothing derogatory about Mr. POWELL. However, on the basis of his limited knowledge concerning him, he does not feel he is in a position to make any recommendations concerning his suitability for a position on the United States Supreme Court.

the District of Columbia

Judge [REDACTED] advised as follows:

b6
b7C
He has known Mr. LEWIS F. POWELL, JR. for approximately 25 years. Mr. POWELL was connected with the law firm of Hinton, Williams, Gay, Powell, and Gibson and Judge [REDACTED] with the law firm of Hamilton and Hamilton in Washington, D. C. Mr. POWELL's law firm was one of the most outstanding firms of the South. The two firms had mutual interests in that they represented the same clientele such as railroads, power companies, and banks. Consequently Mr. POWELL and Judge [REDACTED] were in frequent association with each other. Judge [REDACTED] has also had a relationship with Mr. POWELL in the American Bar Association and in the American College of Trial Lawyers. Judge [REDACTED] has the highest regard for Mr. POWELL as a man and as a lawyer. He is extremely knowledgeable in the law and one of the most outstanding attorneys in the U.S.

He has a very fine appearance. He has a fine personality and is pleasant and thoughtful. His character, habits and sobriety are unquestionable. He appears to be in very good health. He has the highest type of personal and professional reputation. His loyalty to his country is outstanding and he is a man of high integrity.

He has a judicial temperament. Judge [REDACTED] believes that he would be unbiased, objective, and impartial in any decisions he might be called upon to make as a Judge.

b7C
There has been no indication to Judge [REDACTED] that Mr. POWELL has been associated with any racially prejudiced organizations nor extremist groups nor that he himself has any extremist viewpoints. Judge [REDACTED] indicated that when the state of Virginia was having serious problems with the integration in schools, Mr. POWELL first as President of the Richmond, Virginia, Board of Education and later as the Superior Court for the District of Columbia

[REDACTED] Superior Court for the District of Columbia, advised SA [REDACTED] on October 23, 1971, that he did not know LEWIS F. POWELL, JR.

bg
b7C Judge [REDACTED] Superior Court for the District of Columbia, advised SA [REDACTED] as follows on October 27, 1971:

He believes he met LEWIS F. POWELL, JR. around ten or twelve years ago. Actually, he had known of him for approximately 20 years inasmuch as Judge [REDACTED] had at one time practiced law in Norfolk, Virginia, and Mr. POWELL was so outstanding as an attorney in the State of Virginia that everyone in legal circles had heard of him. Judge [REDACTED] believes when he first met Mr. POWELL, Mr. POWELL was President of the American Bar Association. He was one of the leading attorneys in the south. He was very knowledgeable in law. Judge [REDACTED] knows of no lawyer in Virginia who could claim to be a more successful law practitioner in that state.

b7C Mr. POWELL makes a very fine appearance. He has a pleasant, but strong type of personality. He is very courteous and considerate. Nothing of an adverse nature concerning Mr. POWELL's character, conduct, habits or sobriety has ever come to Judge [REDACTED] attention. Mr. POWELL appears to be in good health. He has the highest type of professional and personal reputation. Judge [REDACTED] has had no reason to doubt the loyalty of Mr. POWELL to the United States.

Judge [REDACTED] has had only limited contact with Mr. POWELL. He is of the impression he has a fine judicial temperament. He has a reputation of a devotion to law and Judge [REDACTED] believes he would be objective, impartial, and fair in any decisions he might be called upon to make as a Judge.

There has been no indicating to Judge [REDACTED] that Mr. POWELL has any extremist views, nor that he has been associated with any racially prejudiced organizations or extremist groups.

Judge [REDACTED] believes that President NIXON has chosen a man of the highest legal qualifications for nomination to the United States Supreme Court, and Judge [REDACTED] himself, highly recommends Mr. POWELL for that position.

Judge [REDACTED] Superior Court for the District of Columbia, advised SA [REDACTED] on October 27, 1971, that he did not know Mr. POWELL.

Judge [REDACTED] Superior Court for the District of Columbia, advised SA [REDACTED] as follows on October 27, 1971:

INTERVIEW OF ATTORNEYS

b6
b7C
Mr. [REDACTED] Attorney with the law firm of Evans, Dolphin, Stafford and Webber, 666 11th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., was interviewed on October 26, 1971, by SA [REDACTED] and advised the following:

[REDACTED] met LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR. on one or two occasions while attending conferences at the White House under the Kennedy Administration. He further advised that other than hearing about the applicant he does not know him personally. By following some of the applicant's activities he considers him to be an outstanding lawyer with very good judicial temperament. Although [REDACTED] had never been in court with the applicant he tended to believe that POWELL would be in charge and does not believe that his fellow lawyers would question the applicant.

He knows of no reason to question the applicant's character, associates, loyalty or reputation. He has never heard the applicant give a lecture and he has never talked to the applicant except in informal conversation. He believes that the law practice that the applicant is engaged in is basically a civil practice involved with large corporations. The applicant, to the best of [REDACTED] knowledge, has an outstanding reputation both personally and professionally. He knows of no racially prejudiced organizations that the applicant belongs to nor does he think that the applicant is racially prejudiced in his outlook of the law. He stated the applicant is definitely not a racist and that he is a fair minded person.

b7C
Mr. [REDACTED] stated he would recommend the applicant for a Federal District Judgeship since any decision made could be appealed. He stated that he did not want to recommend the applicant for the Supreme Court because "these are nine men who make the final decision and I don't want to recommend anyone who I do not know very thoroughly and very personally."

On October 26, 1971, [REDACTED] Attorney, firm of Pledger and Mahoney, the Washington Building, Room 925, 15th and New York Avenue, N. W., was interviewed by Special Agent [REDACTED] regarding LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR., and he provided the following information:

He has been acquainted with applicant since approximately 1935-1940. He has visited in applicant's home in Richmond, Virginia [REDACTED] applicant was elected President of that association shortly thereafter. He considers applicant to be a very dear personal friend and he is acquainted with applicant's wife and four children. The last time he saw applicant was in London, England, at the American Bar Association Convention. He considers applicant to be an extremely high grade individual and President NIXON is to be highly commended for selecting applicant. He considers applicant to be a very dignified individual, highly educated and he knows of absolutely no derogatory information at all regarding applicant and/or family.

Applicant's legal ability would especially make him a very desirable candidate for the position of Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. Applicant is a brilliant individual, whose legal firm has provided general counsel for many large organizations. He considers applicant to be a very excellent writer and speaker who was also a very successful President of the American Bar Association and the American College of Trial Lawyers. He is a senior partner of a large prestigious type law firm and applicant would be characterized as a general practitioner of law and if there was a specialty it would be considered in corporate law. Applicant has done a considerable amount of trial work through the years and as senior partner in a large firm, personally supervises the litigation conducted by the junior members of this firm. His Presidency of the American College of Trial Lawyers is indicative of his trial and court room work, as to be a member of that organization, an individual must have extensive experience at trial work.

He considers applicant's personal character to be above reproach and commented favorably regarding applicant's character, loyalty, integrity and associates. Applicant has a very pleasing type personality, is an immaculate dresser and presents a good appearance. He has known applicant to have an occasional drink, however, has never seen him intoxicated. He considers applicant to be in good physical condition and has never heard of him being ill. He has nothing but praise for applicant's wife and children. He enjoys an excellent professional and personal reputation.

He considers applicant to be highly qualified for the position for which being considered due to his excellent judicial temperament. He is the type of individual that does not fly off the handle and is very mild mannered. He considered applicant to be fair, impartial, unbiased and truly objective. He is considered to be completely ethical in all of his undertakings.

Applicant is a member of many legal associations to include past President of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the American Bar Association. He is also a member of the American Bar Foundation and is believed to be a member of the Virginia Country Club in Richmond, Virginia. He has no knowledge of applicant belonging to a racially prejudiced type organization. He has not engaged in any conversation with applicant regarding the issue of civil rights, however, applicant is believed to have been a member of the Board of Education of Richmond, Virginia, and assisted in school integration which was accomplished in a smooth orderly fashion. Applicant is believed to be a member of the Democratic Party, however, he believes that applicant would vote the way he thought, regardless of political affiliation. The extend of applicant's activities in the Democratic Party is not known.

Applicant is unqualifiedly recommended for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and is superbly qualified due to his education, temperament, ability and knowledge of the law. He considers applicant to be one of the great lawyers of the United States, and the President made an excellent selection in selecting the applicant, who is completely qualified in every way.

[REDACTED] stated that the applicant had a superb knowledge of the law in general, and specifically in the field of corporate and civil law. He has only seen the applicant speak on one occasion and although he found him to be a not too stimulating speaker, the applicant was interesting, well organized and was able to present his point of view well. The applicant has been principally involved in the practice of corporate and civil law, and [REDACTED] stated that he is not aware of the applicant's extent of courtroom appearances and has never seen him in a court trial.

[REDACTED] stated that the applicant has a fine personality, and although he is basically reserved, he is a very amiable individual. He always dresses well, and presents a dignified and conservative appearance, and appears to be in good health.

[REDACTED] advised that he is not familiar with the applicant's family but has met his wife who appears to be a charming lady. The applicant's character, associates, reputation, and loyalty are above question.

[REDACTED] stated that although it is difficult to determine what type of judicial temperament an individual might have, he believes that the applicant would be a fair and impartial judge due to the fact that in the past, the applicant has shown that he is influenced by solid legal argument rather than by personal opinion. The applicant's professional ethics are beyond question.

██████████ stated that the only organizations which the applicant is a member of, to the best of his knowledge, is the American Bar Association and Washington and Lee University Board of Trustees. The applicant belongs to no racially prejudiced organizations and, to the best of ██████████ knowledge, is not politically active.

b7C

As far as the applicant's views on civil rights are concerned, ██████████ stated he appears to be moderate in that on one occasion concerning school bussing in Virginia, he took a stand against it, since it was not practical. He in general appears to consider individual civil rights questions on their own merits and does not apply general rules to all such questions.

██████████ stated he would highly recommend the applicant for the position of Supreme Court Justice without reservation.

b7C
[REDACTED]
District of Columbia Government and Member, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Local Chapter, Federal Bar Association, Room [REDACTED] District Building, advised that he does not know LEWIS F. POWELL, JR. personally but as far as his professional reputation is concerned [REDACTED] could pose no objection to the applicant's nomination. [REDACTED] further advised that he considers the applicant to be an exceptional jurist whose legal qualifications, personal qualities, and general knowledge of the law will make him a dominant figure in the Supreme Court.

b6
b7C
[REDACTED] Attorney, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Judicial Selection Committee, Washington, D.C., Local Chapter, Federal Bar Association, advised that he has known LEWIS
F. POWELL, JR. for approximately 15 years, mainly through American Bar Association functions. He stated that the applicant, in his opinion, is fully qualified as far as his intelligence and legal ability is concerned. The applicant is a good writer and speaker, and always presents his point of view clearly and concisely. He has had most of his legal experience in the field of corporate law, and therefore, his courtroom appearances have not been frequent, particularly in the Washington, D.C. area.

[REDACTED] advised that the applicant always presents a dignified and reserved appearance, and has a youthful and healthy bearing. As far as his integrity, honesty and loyalty is concerned, there is no question.

The applicant has always been the type of lawyer who believes that the only standard by which a case should be tried is through law and evidence and that personal convictions should not be considered. His temperament has always been one of patience and thoughtful consideration.

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVES

b6
b7C
Congressman [REDACTED] was interviewed by [REDACTED], on October 26, 1971, and he provided the following information regarding LEWIS FRANKLIN POWELL, JR.

He has been acquainted with applicant for the past six years in the District of Columbia. Applicant, as President of the American Bar Association provided invaluable assistance in the drafting of the 25th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution which was presented to the House of Representatives by the interviewee. He has had limited social contact with applicant at Bar Association type functions, however, he is not acquainted with applicant's family.

He considers applicant to be highly qualified for the position of Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court due to his great legal ability and experience. Applicant is highly intelligent and extremely knowledgeable of the law and procedures. He has had a wealth of experience in the practice of law. Applicant has an excellent speaking and writing ability as evidenced by the fact that some of the writings and speeches of applicant have been read into the Congressional Record by the interviewee. In the past, applicant has engaged in corporate law and a general law practice. He considers applicant to be more of an office lawyer as opposed to being a trial lawyer. He has never had the opportunity to practice for or against applicant in a court of law and has not observed applicant in a court of law.

He considers applicant's personal characteristics to be above reproach and without question. He is truly a gentleman and a scholar in every respect. He presents a very impressive appearance and his conduct is above reproach. He may have an occasional cocktail, but he is considered to be a very temperate person. Applicant's physical condition is not known, however, is not aware of applicant having any physical problem. Applicant's personal and professional reputation are rated excellent and he considers applicant to be a very dedicated family man. Applicant subscribes to high professional ethics and his honesty, integrity and loyalty to the U. S. are above reproach.

He considers applicant to be a living definition of judicial temperament. Applicant, in the opinion of interviewee is the type man "I would want to judge me". He considers applicant to be extremely fair, impartial, unbiased and objective. He has no reason to question applicant's professional ethics and applicant has helped to write some of the American Bar Association Canons.

It is not known what organizations applicant belongs with the exception of the usual bar associations. It is unknown whether or not applicant belongs to any racially prejudiced type organizations, but it is very doubtful. He is not aware of applicant having any specific views on the various civil rights issues. Applicant is considered to be a Democrat in his political affiliation, but an independent in his conduct. He recommends applicant without any reservation at all for an appointment as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. He was very delighted when he heard that the President had selected a man of applicant's talents, stature and abilities. Applicant is a Virginia lawyer with national and international abilities and reputation as a lawyer.

On October 27, 1971, Mrs. [REDACTED] advised Special Agent [REDACTED] that the Congressman is not available for interview due to the pressure of his work. She advised he is not personally acquainted with LEWIS F. POWELL, JR. She advised [REDACTED] is presently doing research work and forming a position on Mr. POWELL as regards his appointment to the Supreme Court. When the position of [REDACTED] is made public, Congressman [REDACTED] will support this position as regards the applicant.

On October 27, 1971, United States Representative [REDACTED] advised Special Agent [REDACTED] that he has known the applicant, LEWIS F. POWELL, JR., for a great many years, socially and as a constituent from the district he, [REDACTED] represents. He is acquainted with the applicant's wife who is a fine decent person and advised the applicant is completely devoted to her. He has always found POWELL a very quiet, reserved individual whose personal habits are above reproach.

Congressman [REDACTED] advised he has had no close professional contact with the applicant, has never worked with him on any legal matters, nor has he ever appeared in court with him. His opinion of the applicant is based primarily on observation and his reputation in the state. In this respect, he has found POWELL a very competent, capable person who possesses an excellent knowledge of the law. He would further describe him as a law and order man and a strict constructionist. POWELL has the reputation of being a very calm, deliberate person and he feels POWELL, on a given question, will listen to all sides of the picture before rendering a decision. He has always found the applicant a very self-controlled person and that he, [REDACTED] knows of no bias on any given subject, including the race question, possessed by the applicant. There is no question of the applicant's loyalty to the United States. He believes POWELL possesses the requirements and qualifications for a Supreme Court Judgeship and would highly recommend him for this position.

Mr. [REDACTED] Attorney at Law, Room [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Washington, D. C., advised Special Agent [REDACTED] on October 27, 1971, that he was formerly a United States Representative from the State
[REDACTED]

b6
b7C
He has known the applicant for approximately ten years solely on a professional basis. He considers applicant to be a very honest, stable, and mature individual, and one who is extremely well respected in the State of Virginia.
The applicant is a brilliant person who is exceptionally well versed in the law. He is a very fair individual. The applicant has a reputation of being an outstanding attorney and his law firm is considered to be one of the best in Virginia. The applicant was formerly President of the American Bar Association and has been affiliated with various committees in the American Bar Association. The applicant is considered by Mr. [REDACTED] to be a spokesman for very sound and reasonable views of national security policies and this is shown through his work in the American Bar Association. He believes that the applicant arrives at his position on different problems by very sound and stable reasoning.

b6
b7C
Mr. [REDACTED] further continued and stated that he has never observed the applicant as a practicing attorney, but the applicant's reputation is outstanding in this field. He considers the applicant to be a person of excellent character and reputation and he has had no reason to doubt his loyalty to the United States. He very highly recommended applicant for the position of Justice with the Supreme Court of the United States, and he considers this to be an outstanding selection made by the President. He believes that the applicant will make an outstanding Justice and will be a credit to the Supreme Court.
